

NEW ENGLAND

NEean

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENT NETWORK

2008

SUMMER ASSESSMENT INSTITUTE

Thursday, June 5 - Friday, June 6

Keene State College, New Hampshire

Workshops by leading assessment thinkers and practitioners.....

BARBARA WALVOORD

Professor Emerita, University of Notre Dame

PEGGY MAKI

Consultant, Writer, Assessment Editor

Offered for institutional teams of faculty, staff, and administrators to:

Evaluate useful tools and methods for assessing and improving student learning.

Examine practical case studies of institutional assessment initiatives.

Engage in facilitated team planning sessions to enhance assessment at your school.

EXAMPLE TOPICS

Institutional Research in Support of Assessment
Rubric Development & Other Assessment Methods
Using Assessment Results in Budgeting & Planning
Institutionalizing & Sustaining Assessment

FACILITATORS

Claire Bronson, Western New England College

Chris Fauske, Salem State College

Deborah Grossman-Garber, Univ. of Rhode Island

James May, Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts

Jeanne Mullaney, Community Coll. of Rhode Island

Earl Peace, College of Holy Cross

Ann Rancourt, Keene State College

Martha Stassen, Univ. of Massachusetts, Amherst

LOCATION

All sessions and overnight housing will be located on the scenic campus of Keene State College in Keene, NH

COST

$400 per person registration fee includes all meals, assessment resources, and one night's lodging in air-conditioned rooms at Keene State College

REGISTRATION

To register, complete the Assessment Institute registration form at <http://neean.org>.

MORE INFORMATION

Carol Bailey Leigh, Executive Director
New England Educational Assessment Network
Voice: 207-833-5362
Fax: 207-833-5377
execdirector@neean.org

